

CFP- Belgium Charter

The members of CFP-Belgium engage

1. To negotiate, to make agreements and to execute these in a highly professional and qualitative way based on the guidelines of the The White Book (link) & The Universal Principles of Engagement (link).
2. To protect and to look after our moral and economic interests, our profession ethics.
3. To take on our profession according to the national and European legislation and in particular with regards to the labor regulations in the sector.
4. To regularise, improve, develop and protect the national market.
5. To be the point of contact for clients-mandators, suppliers as well as allied associations.
6. To have a loyal competition: independent but with respect for each other.
7. Through internal and open communication to be attentive to and to combat possible risks of abuse situations in the sector.
8. To be an interexchange platform that organises meetings regularly.
9. To organise activities in order to expound on the different aspects of the profession.
10. To promote the Belgian commercial film production